ORDER

It will be recalled that on April 16, 2004, Magistrate Judge John S. Kaull entered an Order in the above-styled civil action directing the Plaintiff to pay the balance of monies he held in escrow, after payment of authorized attorney fees, into the general receivership of the United States Court for the Northern District of West Virginia. On April 23, 2004, Plaintiff paid $63,663.81 into the general receivership.

Upon review of the record before the Court, it appears that the entirety of the monies held by the Court are encumbered by those liens, as set forth in the Complaint, and are to be held by the Clerk of Court for the Northern District of West Virginia until those creditors, which have been made parties to this suit, come forward and state their claims. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that each named creditor, which has been made a party to this civil action, shall come forward and file with the Court, by September 10, 2007, their requests for payment and memorandums of law setting forth their positions on priority of the liens at issue in the above-styled civil action, and their recommendations to the Court for distribution.

The Clerk is directed to transmit copies of this Order to counsel of record herein.
